DOUBLE ACT

This book is by Jacqueline Wilson and illustrated by Nick Sharratt and Sve Heap. It is about two twins, Ruby and Garnet, who both have very different personalities. Their dad has a new girlfriend who they hate but they move as their dad’s dream has been to open a bookstore. Soon after they moved Ruby finds an open spot for a show called The Twins Of St Clare's but Garnet ruins it. Ruby after really hates her sister.

I LOVE this book as these two girls are different in their own way and I love how the book is laid out to make it look like their own story. The only bit that made me upset is when Ruby cuts off all her hair and dresses different to her twin but they do make up in the end.
