

Talking about...Pre-School Speech and Language Activities

There are many resources available online, lots of them are free but it can be bewildering to find something that appeals to you. Here are some of them that we find useful.

Before you start, check out these Top Tips:

https://www.thecommunicationtrust.org.uk/media/617945/tct_toptips_pdf.pdf

Link	Description
Attention, Listening and Understanding https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=h0Kp_J9kvNM	Visit this YouTube activity to identify the hidden animal by the sound it makes https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/t-s-638-game-ideas-to-support-attention-and-listening	You can register at Twinkl for free during the school closures. Here is a set of games to play to help attention skills.
https://www.thecommunicationtrust.org.uk/media/3163/postcards_pre_school_final.pdf	Here is a set of cards that have games for attention, play, listening and interaction.
https://speechandlanguage.info/parents/activities	There are lots of ideas here for using everyday activities to help with your child's talking.
https://speechandlanguage.info/resources/perch/parents/parentsgreenshoppinglistmaster.pdf	A shopping game for listening and following instructions
https://speechandlanguage.info/resources/perch/parents/parentsgreenwhoisthethiefmasterv2.pdf	A fun game to practise question words.